(OTHER THAN KGB) IN AUSTRALIA (1947)

From: MOSCOW

To: CANBERRA

No: 65

22nd March 1946

To EFIL[i].

1. Your decision has reached me. To me it is completely understandable that [1 group unrecovered] some friction with the MASTER[KHOZYAIN][ii] and the NEIGHBOURING COLLEAGUES[SOSEDNIE KOLLEGI][iii] created, to a certain

[44 groups unrecoverable]

it is possible to endure both this and the unpleasantness. Your wife's illness merits more serious attention. Is it not possible to arrange for her treatment on the spot? We will give you financial assistance.

2. In the near future our permanent official[KADROVYJ RABOTNIK] is setting off to join you. If, with your help, he proves capable of replacing you in the future, it is to be hoped that you will soon be able to come home.
